

General information about data protection

Dear prospective client/client,

Pursuant to article 13 of the EU regulation 679/2016, I inform you that in the conduct of my legal practice I put the maximum effort to ensure the security and confidentiality of the my client's personal data.

All documents, information and data provided by you, either in person, over the phone or through electronic means, including webpages, are inserted in an archive called " CLIENTS" placed in 56 University Street, BELFAST, BT7 1HB and I am the responsible person for processing the personal data.

The data you provide to me are processed for the following purposes : 1) providing legal services and the completion of the professional scope of work, with or without substitution 2) the drafting and issuance of invoice in the client's name by the experts 3) sending information related to other services offered by my legal practice, including sending news letters, except where you expressly said otherwise.

The personal data will be stored and kept for the time of 7 years, starting from the day of completion of scope of the engagement. The data could be kept for a longer period of time in case the legal service is performed wholly or partly in another State and the fiscal legislation of that state requires a retain period longer than 7 years.

Please be advised that you can exercise the right of access, right to rectification, right to erasure (right to be forgotten), right to restriction of processing, right to data portability, and right to object, by recorded delivery attaching a copy of you passport or driver licence, to the following address : Augusto Scerrato European Lawyer, 56 University Street, Belfast, BT7 1HB, United Kingdom.

Lastly, I inform you in case of any problem there is a complaint procedure available to you at the relevant British authority for personal data.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

During the execution of the the contract for legal services, communication will be performed also through electronic means, manly emails, also attaching files and documents. Upon request by a specific request I can provide enhanced means of transmission and authenticity, such as : certified emails, electronic signature and encrypting documents and attachments, but may require an installation from the client of specific software.

Augusto Scerrato – European Lawyer – Registered with the Law Society of Northern Ireland.